COMPETITIVE PRICING

Every organisation has unique IT needs, thus requiring unique and varied IT manpower skills. Thus our service offerings, consultation and pricing models are dependent on individual client requirements. Our pricing models are a reflection of our highly efficient services and our aim to be most competitive in the industry today.

TECHNICAL STAFF AUGMENTATION

When you need an extended staff for technical support, NIVID delivers qualified experts who are specifically versed in the IT industry.

Unique Capabilities

Many companies provide technical staffing for a broad range of activities across the IT spectrum. However, the ability of these firms to provide technical resources that have the necessary credentials and experience for a given functional area is often "hit or miss." The failure of a firm to deliver the most competent resources needed ultimately results in higher costs and missed opportunities for clients. NIVID delivers on what we promise. We focus on providing Staff Augmentation services within the disciplines of IT Industry at which we excel.

Experience

NIVID has a proven, record of being able to attract, hire, motivate, train and retain strong IT personnel. Our highly skilled resources are available to augment our clients' existing staffs for project management, integration and testing, development and implementation, and many other functions.

INFRASTRUCTURE

NIVID is located in London; UK's business hub, home to several IT multinational firms, SME's and Corporates. To ensure timely solutions to demanding customers, a superior IT infrastructure is imperative. Apart from IT Staffing Solutions, we are well known IT Consultancy firm. Due to our expert domain knowledge in IT we gain the superior advantage over other like minded agencies.

NIVID has a full-fledged associate office in Ahmedabad, India.
